Wilson Asserts That It Is Not Required of the United States to Help Suppress the Revolt in

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 18.—Replying in a statement to a list of questions put to him by a San Francisco league of nations arganization, President Wilson declared Great Britain could not outvote the United States in the league; that foreign governments could not under the covenant, order American troops abroad; that the league would have a powerful influence toward restoration of Shantung to China; that the United States would not be obligated by Article X, to ate Great Britain in suppressing a revoit in Ireland, and that under Article II, there would be created a new forum for questions of self-determination.

Mr. Wilson's statement containing the questions of self-determination; I, Will you state the underlying consideration which dictated an awarding of six votes to the British Empire in the assembly, and is it true that Great Britain will outvote us in the league of nations and thereby control the league's actions?

How England Got Votes.

Answer—The consideration which led to assigning six votes to self-governing portions of the British empire was that they have, in effect, in all but foreign policies, become autonomous self-governing states, their policy in all but foreign affairs being independent of the control of the British government and in many respects dissimilar from it. But it is not true that the British empire can outvote us in the league of nations and therefore control the action of the league, because in every matter except the admission of new matter except the admission of new members in the league no action can be taken without the concurrence of a

It will, therefore, absoluted to China, promote the restoration to China, promote the restora council, so that in all matters of action the affirmative voic of the United States is necessary and equivalent to the united vote of the representatives of the several parts of the British empire. The united vote of the several parts of the British empire cannot offset or overcome the vote of the United States.

Sending of Troops Into War.

2. Is it true that under the league of nations foreign countries can order the sending of American troops to foreign countries?

Answer—It is not. The right of Congress to determine such matters is in rowise impaired.

3. What effect will the league of nations have in cither forwarding or inindering the final restoration of Shantung to China? What effect will the league of nations have in cither forwarding or inindering the final restoration of Shantung to China? What effect will the league of nations have in preventing further spoilation of China and the abrogation of all such special privileges now enjoyed in China by foreign countries?

Answer. The league of nations will have a very powerful effect in forward.
